

We are strongly opposed to placing the control of news dissemination into the hands of a small group of entities. In order to maintain an unbiased flow of information there needs to be the widest ownership possible of that means of dissemination. We strongly urge you to vote to not allow a monopoly of this vital service.

Harold & Marilyn Murphy